SOME INTERNET SOURCES FOR INFORMATION AND RESEARCH ON THE SUPREME COURT AND THE FIRST AMENDMENT

Interfaith Alliance is not responsible for the content of the websites listed:

The official web site of the US Supreme Court:

The Supreme Court's official website debuted in 2000 and continually adds materials. Opinions and Journals are available in slip form on the Court's website in PDF format and remain until the print volume of the U.S. Reports is published. Opinions from bound volumes 502 (OT 1991) to date are available. Guides to opinions and how to obtain them are also included.

The status of requests for certiorari or rehearing, motions in pending cases, and the status of other applications summarily decided are encompassed in Orders, available on the site from OT 2003. The Court's Journal is available from OT 1993, compiling orders, bar admissions, other case information, and Court announcements. Rules of the Supreme Court:

Other useful sites are:

The Oyez Project providing a wealth of primary material on Supreme Court cases: The OYEZ Project includes audio of select opinions since 1995 as they are delivered in the courtroom. Case summaries for earlier cases are also available. <http://www.oyez.org>

FindLaw's searchable database of the Supreme Court decisions since 1893 (U.S. Supreme Court Decisions: U.S. Reports 150-, 1893-). Browsable by year and U.S. Reports volume number, and searchable by citation, case title and full text.
